General Description
Coordinates and supervises the work of students and lower level employees within a Laboratory.

Examples of Duties
- Teaches laboratory classes, which includes testing and grading.
- Provides individual instructions to students.
- Supervises students working in the Laboratory.
- Monitors the Laboratory budget.
- Manages supplies and equipment used in the Laboratory.
- Schedules the Laboratory hours of operation.
- Supervises and trains Laboratory Assistants.
- Designs new experiments.
- Prepares laboratory manuals.
- Assists faculty in teaching and conducting laboratory procedures.
- Performs other related duties as assigned.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities
- Knowledge of research methods, protocols and procedures.
- Knowledge of equipment used in laboratories, such as telescopes, microscopes, etc.
- Effective oral and written communication skills.
- Ability to lift or move equipment used within the laboratory.

Minimum GSU Hiring Standards
Master’s degree in the assigned research area; or Bachelor’s degree in the assigned research area and two years of related experience; or a combination of education and related experience.