General Description
Performs critical speech-language pathology services for a research project.

Examples of Duties
- Schedules children for assessment and intervention.
- Assesses children for participation in speech-language pathology studies.
- Completes home visits for assessment and intervention purposes.
- Supervises the delivery of the experimental intervention.
- Monitors and follows children post-intervention.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities
- Knowledge of Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC).
- Knowledge of computer software programs, word processing, and spreadsheets.
- Skilled in working with young children.

Minimum GSU Hiring Standards
Master’s degree in Speech Pathology and must be American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) certified. Three years of experience in the field. Must be eligible to obtain a Georgia license.